Course objectives	The aim of the course is to acquaint students with the conditions and trends of formation and development of liturgical practice and its theology within the framework of our local Church.
Learning outcomes	Training students for further independent research in this area.
Course content
Lectures	Researching the origin of the basic elements and forms of the Divine Worship in our local Church and their subsequent development through the centuries. Processing monuments and texts that expose liturgical theology of a certain epoch. Students will acquire this knowledge directly from the sources - manuscripts and old printed service books, frescoes, icons, church furniture and objects of Church applied art.
Practical classes (exercises, additional forms of classes, research work)	Work in the manuscript collections of museums and libraries, study trips and excursions. Additional forms of teaching - Church liturgical practice.
